

2000 Innovation Salon Schedule

Thursday November 16, 2000:

Jack Smith, Leader for Policy and Strategy, National Research Council of Canada & Member, Editorial Board, The Innovation Journal: Valuing and Building Knowledge Networks: Leveraging Canada's Intellectual Capital for Innovation Productivity

Tuesday November 7, 2000:

Heather Munroe-Blum, Vice President Research and International Relations, University of Toronto: Growing Ontario's Innovation System: The Strategic Role of University Research (<http://www.library.utoronto.ca/rir/report/index.html>) [French Version]

Thursday, September 21, 2000:

Gardner Church, Special Advisor to the Transition Team, City of Ottawa Amalgamation: Opportunities for Cities to Enhance Economic, Environmental and Social Goals

Thursday April 27, 2000:

Eleanor Glor, Editor (The Innovation Journal) and Convenor (The Innovation Salon): A Tool for Understanding Innovations. Participants are asked to identify and briefly write up an innovation to analyze.

Thursday, March 23, 2000:

Dr. David Strangway, President and CEO (The Canada Foundation for Innovation): How can governments encourage innovation?

Monday, February 21, 2000:

Brian Marson and Terry Hunt: Strategies for Building an Innovative Public Service

Thursday, January 27, 2000:

Majid Khoury: Market Explorers: An Innovative Small Business