
The Innovation Salon Schedule
Location: Canadian Centre for Management Development, 65 Guigues, Ottawa, Canada

February 16, 1995 (first meeting)
A Discussion lead by Eleanor Glor: What is innovation? Definitions

What is the role of political programs in innovation? Do they support or hinder innovation? Are the programs and policies in the Liberal policy program (the Red Book) innovative? Which ones?

March 16:
A Discussion lead by Eleanor Glor

The Role of Values in Innovation -- Importance of understanding the values, ideology and politics behind innovations.

PS 2000: Why did it not create fundamental change in the federal PS? Did it introduce the value changes that made change possible later, when pressure was greater? Gordon Roston, Treasury Board

April 20:

Guests: participants in the tour Josie Whiting, CIDA and Public Service Commission, Nicole Mendenhall, Revenue Canada and Mary Murphy, Training Programs Branch, Public Service Commission.

May 18:
A Discussion lead by Eleanor Glor

The role of risk-taking and failure in innovation in the public sector.

June 15:
Nunavut: an Aboriginal Self-Government Innovation or an Imitation of the Federal Government? John Merritt, Legal Counsel, Nunavut Implementation Committee

Summer break

October 19:
Private Sector Innovation in Ottawa: Jim Roche, Newbridge Networks Corporation

November 16:
Public Sector Innovations from Other Countries: Claire McQuillan, Vice President, Institute on Governance